

// Afternoon tea in Multifaith Europe //

Monday, 26th November 15:00 - 17:00

The Boardroom, 1st Floor, Voluntary Sector Centres, The Merchant Centre, 1 New Street Square, London EC4A 3BF (nearest tubes Chancery Lane & Farringdon)

Following on from breakfast (2010) and lunch (2011) in multifaith Europe, London Boroughs Faiths Network invites you for afternoon tea and an update on the progress of the European Network on Religion and Belief which launched this year. Share your views on how local religious, multifaith and non-convictional groups across the continent can work together for a safe and sustainable Europe. What are the issues? How should we join with others to address them?

There are limited places in the Boardroom. Please reserve your place by emailing convener@lbfm.org 07903 682 142. Our thanks go to the Faith-based Regeneration Network for hosting this special occasion.

Samovar? Mint tea? Ginger?
Cup or glass? Rock sugar?
Chai? Cream? Lemon? Smoky?
Black or green? Builder's tea?
Indian or Chinese?

Bring your favourite tea leaves and any additional ingredients and equipment.

Together we will enjoy a wide range of tea currently drunk in different ways across Europe.
