

Free training day!

Working with young people

Come along to our free safeguarding training day on Friday 27th September!

The day is designed for small groups who work with young people and are not commissioned by Lambeth Council, such as faith and cultural groups.

Features of the training day will include:

- Details of support available to the faith sector and small independent organisations
- Practical guidance on safer recruitment
- Advice on child accident prevention, road safety & fire safety
- Time to network with similar organisations
- A chance to speak to the Local Authority Designated Officer and specialists from the LSCB, the Safe Network, Lambeth Children's Services, Health, Police and Fire services
- Information about free safeguarding training and resources
- Updates on hot topics such as e-safety & sexual exploitation
- And much MORE!
- Places are limited. Please register in advance by emailing a booking form to vwhite@lambeth.gov.uk

*Further sessions will be held for organisations delivering services which are commissioned by Lambeth Borough Council, as these organisations have additional duties. For further information please contact Vivienne White vwhite@lambeth.gov.uk or call 0207 926 7068

Free refreshments and hot buffet for all participants
