

Faith in the Public Realm

Faiths and Civil Society Unit – Events Series 2013-14

Bringing together the varied experiences of the Unit's Fellows, the series will discuss a range of issues relating to the role of faiths in the public realm. Each event will be led by a Fellow of the Unit. Events are open to all.

The series will be accompanied by Fellows' Briefings, corresponding to the events, which will be available in advance on the FCSU website: www.gold.ac.uk/faithsunit

What's faith got to do with welfare?

Nick Spencer,
Research Director,
Theos thinktank
10 October 2013 | 5-7pm
Ben Pimlott Lecture Theatre

Sikhing On-line: are policy-makers looking in the right places?

Dr. Jasjit Singh,
University of Leeds
15 January 2014 | 5-7pm
RHB 137

Near Neighbours - can Christians do public faith for everyone?

Dilwar Hussain,
New Horizons in British Islam
14 May 2014 | 5-7pm
RHB 137

Is Interfaith Dialogue Interplay or Introspection?

Dr. Rebecca Catto,
Centre for Social Relations,
Coventry University
13 November 2013 | 5-7pm
RHB 137

How do governments do God?

Warwick Hawkins,
Head of Faith Communities
Engagement, Department for Communities and Local Government
12 March 2014 | 5-7pm
RHB 137

To book your place, please email stacsresearch@gold.ac.uk

Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON